~SOCIETY~

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George B. Miles, Mesdames M. A. Sowell, Ione May, Walter Cassidy, Theodore Fender, Walkley, Misses Helen Black, Leathe Walker, Gaynell and High Miles, Lillian Robinson, Alma

Ashley, Dora Truesdale, Sally Poindexler, Messrs. Harry Black, Floyd and Frank Miles, Captain F. L. Shaw, J. D.
Hudson, W. P. Cassidy, W. B. Triplett,
J. R. Cunningham, J. F. Pendleton, J.
W. Gallion, C. R. Faulkner, B. F. Elliolt, J. B. Wise, Cross and Poole, Arthur
Mohler, T. Fender, C. E. Woodham, CanMohler, T. Fender, C. E. Woodham, CanMohler, T. Fender, C. E. Woodham, CanMohler, T. Fender, C. E. Woodham, Canoit, J. B. Wise, Cross and Poole, Arthur Mohler, T. Fender, C. E. Woodham, Captain J. R. Nelson, W. A. Hammit. Outfolior of Scottsville; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harford, of Scottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Allice Burwell Reed is leaving town shortly to attend the Easter dances at the University of Virginia.

Mrs. Horace Flowers and her small son expect to leave on Thursday for Panville; L. Nelson, of Florence, S. C.

Gray-Smoot. Mrs. George Waverly Smoot has sent spending the week-end with relatives in Powhatan County.

Aughter, Sarah Redd, to William Scott. ray, of Farmville. The ceremony will ake place Saturday afternoon, April 10, at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride in

Of Interest Here.

The members of the Richmond Chap-er of the National Civic Federation, of which Mrs. J. Allison Hodges is chairman, are to be congratulated upon their recent generous donations of linens and surgical dressings for use in Europe by the Red Cross, and also for their enthusiastic co-operation and assistance. thusiastic co-operation and assistance in this work. Several letters have been received by Mrs. Hodges from the national chairman of the federation in praise of the work done here. Mrs. John Murphy kindly lent the use of one of the assembly rooms for the work done during the past two months, and results have been most gratifying to the works, as the report of Mrs. W. A. Crenshaw shows, which is as follows: Fifty-four surgical kits, each containing enough for two dressings of flannel abdominal bands, bandages, etc.; rolled bandages, 200; T bandages, 24; fracture pillows, 72; flannel abdominal bands, 34; small gauzes (one to package), 67 packages; small ces (two dozen to package), 12 ages: large cloths (one dozen to delphia, has returned to her home here. of the assembly rooms for the work cases; large cloths (one dozen to makes). 12 delphia, has returned to her home here. Miss Mary Cameron left town last week for the North, where she will esides the above supplies, $200 gen- spend a short time in New York.

wasides the above supplies, $200 genecusity donated for this purpose by the committee of the Red Cross ball recentiv held in this city, and $25 given by the Woman's Club, have also been expended here for additional surgical supplies which were urgently requested have left and en reby the foreign war relief committee. All of these articles have been forwarded to the National Civic Federation headquarters in New York, which is in daily communication with the Red Cross hospitals in Europe. Over $0,000 dressings have already been sent by the National Civic Federation, but as 1,000.

over the results accomplished by the women in charge of the local chapter.

Linen Shower.

A niem shower was given for Miss Elizabeth Kennedy on Theshay afternoon, when Misses were the local chapter.

An additional the more of the local chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Brightwell, who were in Richmond last week, have returned to their residence on local the local chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hudgins is a guest of his parallel to the house and dear the parallel to the house and the chapter did not be not seen the control of the guest of heads of the brides.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Clair-Rutler have cently been called to Richmond by the liless and death of Mrs. Buller's bright arm.

A. D. Hudgins is a guest of his parallel to Richmond has been at the parallel to Richmond has the parallel to Richmond has been at the parallel to Richmond has been

Miss Dora Horner.

Candy Booth.

With a setting of revolutionary scenes and American flags, the candy booth will be a feature of the Blues' Bazaar to be held here April 19 to 24, inclusive. A painting of Independence Hall will be on exhibition, while other colonial decorations will predominate. The attendants at the booth will be garbed in Martha Washington costumes, conforming to the general scheme. Among the special attractions will be a "hokey pokey" cart, of which Mrs. R. Lee Page, formerly Miss Dudley Powers, will have charge. A bevy of girls, dressed as Belgians, will accompany the cart, which will be rolled around the armory.

company the cart, which will be rolled around the armory.

Those assisting Mrs. William Wade, chairman of the candy booth, are as follows: Mrs. R. W. Thompson, assistant; Miss Lindsay Powers, treasurer; Mrs. Samuel Fauntleroy Rew, secretary; assisted by Misses Emily Wade, Martha Davis, Mildred Williams, Louise Shepherd, Bessie McGlivery, Mary Powers, Letticia Van Burean, Elizabeth Beveriäge, Juliet Martin, May Roberson, Grace Gilliam, Emily Mariott, May Lefebvre, Harriet Royster, Pearl Oakley, Mrs. Thomas Bigger, Mrs. W. M. Reynolds, Mrs. S. L. Gilliam. Those assisting Mrs. Page with the "hokey pokey" cart will be Mrs. Louis Cutchins, Misses Elsie Parrish, Julia Cone, Ann Royall, Jeilfs Scott, Camilla Wellford, Elizabeth Taylor, Harriet Gunn, Jennie heth Taylor, Harriet Gunn, Jennie Boyce and Emily Royall. Interesting Entertainment:

Interesting Entertainment:

The Parent-Teacher Association of the William Fox School will hold a poll Millinery opening and motion picture entertainment at the school auditorium on Thursday from 4 to 10 clock. A charming program has been arranged and all interested are cordially invited to attend.

Bible Class at Y. W. C. A.

The class in "Modern Discipleship," taught by Miss Katharine H. Hawes, will meet at the central building of the Young Women's Christian Associae Young Women's Christian Associa-on on Tuesday evening, promptly at o'clock. The class has been of the eepest interest and attendance upon it as increased steadily. The subject its week is "Preparation for Service." is is the fourth lesson, and after esday registration for the class will closed. Any one willing to attend class, and who has not yet done is cordially invited to be present esday evening. vitations Out.

(Continued from Second Page.)

ford and Miss Lillian Robinson. F. W.
Miles, the oldest son of Mrs. Miles, an employee of the Seaboard Air Line, relitrad house for the Seaboard Page.)

Owsley, which is known as "Tiverton."

"Tiverton" is one of the show places in that section of the State and a great many Richmond people have been entertained there.

many Richmond people have been entertained them of the occasion, and, together with J. F. Pendleton, entertained the guests with violin and banjourets. Mrs. Ione Cutler May sang the answer to "Oh, Promise Me," and recited selections appropriate for the occasion. An elaborate supper was served, at which Dr. Percy Stokes of North Carolina, acted as toastmaster. Messrs. Cassidy, Shaw, Triplet, Cunningham, and Hudson gave an appropriate toast in honor of the occasion, and Hudson gave an appropriate toast in honor of the occasion, and good wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Miles's future happiness, and these were followed by a dance in which the Old Virginia reel was featured. The german was led by Mrs. May and F. W. Miles. brought down from where we know

> Miss Otto was one of the first graduates from St. Gertrude's Convent since its establishment, and is a highly talented musician.

Visiting Here. Mrs. E. E. Brown, of Mount Fair, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Par-rott, at 519-A North Tenth Street. Mrs. Brown will remain in Richmond until

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

Mrs. Robert Scott, of this city,

Mrs. William R. Massie and Miss Mary Williams have left for a short stay in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins Ellerson have taken the Garnett residence in Ginter Park, which they will occupy about the middle of April.

Waldorf-Astoria. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Craig, who former ly resided at the Cold Sulphur Springs, will be at the Rockbridge Baths for Miss Maggie Willis, of Floyd County, is spending some time with friends in

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Brockenbrough have left for the Panama Exposition, and en route for California they will visit friends in Texarkana, Ark., and Woodville, Miss.

Miss Ethel Henley, who is attending school in this city, will spend the Easter holidays with relatives in Vinta.

The Richmond Foreign Relief Asso-noon will meet at 3:30 o'clock at "Pem-

'TIZ" for puffed-up, burning, aching, calloused feet and corns.

Why go limping around with aching, puffed-up feet-feet so tired, chafed, invitations Out.

Invitations have been received here for the marriage of Miss Emma Webder Skipworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Skipworth, of St. Louis, Mo., to John G. Hopkins, of Albemarle County and New York.

The wedding, which is of great increat to society in Virginia, will take place in St. Louis on Monday evening, April 5, at 8 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins will make their home in Alpemarle County, where Mr. Hopkins has recently purchased the estate formerly owned by the late Dr. C. T. torture.

puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you shoes on or off?

SOCIETY AMATEUR

Mrs. Shields-Russell will take part in the one-act play of Fenton gone to New York, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs, which will be one of the features of the Society Minstrels, Easter Putnam Watkins, who are staying at week. Mrs. Shields-Russell is one of the loveliest young women in Richweek. Mrs. Shields-Russell is one of the loveliest young women in Richmond, and her dancing will be a charming addition to the amateur performance, given by the Girls' Auxiliary for the Belle Bryan Day Nursery.

> broke," the country residence of Mrs. Edward J. Willis, on the Cary Street

In the Service of the King Circle of Street. A full attendance is desired.

The St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will meet Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. William A. Burrows, at 2710 East Franklin Street. UnThe sewing circle, which is der the auspices of this circle the Wil-mot-Goodwin concert will be given in the Jefferson Auditorium on April 7

The Mothers' Club of Madison School will meet on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the school. A full attendance is desired on account of election of officers, which will take place at this time.

PORT HAYWOOD

URBANNA

URBANNA, VA., March 27 .- The installation of the larger dynamo of the King's Daughters will meet to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock with Miss Juliet Woody, of 117 North Twenty-ninth tion. When in operation this will greatly improve the lighting system as well as furnish current for operating various small manufacturing plants that

The sewing circle, which is one of the most recent gatherings here, met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. John Faulkner, and was delightfully entertained. The circle was organized five years ago and has met weekly ever since.

The community is rejoicing over the convalescence of Dr. C. C. Christian, who has been confined to bed for three or four weeks from illness.

Booker Garnett, former Representative of Essex County, but now a resident of Urbanna, is confined to his home

Dr. Everett Gee, of Richmond, has been the recent guest of friends in Blackstone.

J. William Daniel, incumbent, and purpose was to raise funds to continue the present session, which will have to have announced themselves candidates for the Virginia House of Delegates pay the teachers. This is the case with from Mathews and Middlesex.

$1.00 PUTS EITHER OF THESE GREAT "HOME $1.00 COMFORTS" IN YOUR HOME.

Gibson Refrigerators

A style, a size, a price for every household-with or without water cooler. Cleanable, sanitary linings of opalite, porceloid, porcelain or galvanized iron. Best hardwood construction-double walls, lined with mineral wool and charcoal. Cold air circulates through food chambers by means of vents. The exclusive features of the Gibson make it BEST ON THE MARKET. $6.95 upward.

Gibson Ice Chests Same superior materials and construction—same thorough insulation. The prices start at $4.95.

New Method Gas Ranges

30 Different Styles

each of which possesses the well-known and exclusive New Method improvements. Patented oven and burner construction insures perfect cookingalways-and least consumption of gas. The style illustrated is equipped with No. 1 Fireless Cooker, that slides out of the way like a drawer. Hot water attachments for any style New Method Range. Come in and see our special demonstration all this week.

LYNCHBURG

[Special to the Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., March 27.—Mr. and, Mrs. F. M. Monk left on Thursday for a visit at Salisbury, N. C.
Mr. and Mrs. James T. Noell. Jr., and Miss Hortense Noell are in Washing-

Miss Beulah V. Wright, of Tye River, is visiting relatives in Lynchburg.
John L. Adams, of Grand Rapids,
Mich., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Stephen Adams, on Clay Street.
Miss Margaret Zimmer, who has been visiting Rev. and Mrs. George Floyd logers, has returned to her home in Rogers, has returned Petersburg.

Miss Gertrude Landon, of Charlottes-ville, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J.
A. Landon, at her home on Pansy

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shaner, in Madison Heights, have returned to Farmville.

Mrs. J. L. Classin and Miss Mayme
Witt, of Roanoke, are visiting here, having been called to Lynchburg by the illness of their sister, Mrs. H. C. Marsh, 1709 Main Street. Mrs. W. P. Lipscomb, of Charlottes-ville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. D. MacGregor at her home in River-

Miss Jessie Wrigglesworth has re-turned to her home here after a visit with friends in Richmond.

C. N. Hancock, who spent the winter in Mexico and California, has returned to his home here. State Senator Howell C. Featherston

Rev. and Mrs. Frank T. McFaden, of Richmond, who were here to attend the centennial of the First Presbyterian Church, of which Dr. McFaden was formerly pastor, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Montgomery during their stay.

Mrs. W. E. Elmore and daughter, Mary Louise, of Lawrenceville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Irby Turnbull.

M. A. Waller has been quite sick for several days.

Gordon Goode, of Greensboro, N. C., has returned after a visit of several

BOYDTON

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOYDTON, VA., March 27.—C. F.
Moseley, H. L. Turpin, J. H. Baptist and Irby Turnbull were in Richmond this week. Mrs. Bessie W. Madden, or Richmond this week.

J. M. Bernhardt, of Lenoir, N. C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gilbert, on Market Street.

Newcomer to Washington

State Senator Howell C. Featherston is able to be out after a two weeks' siege with the grip.

Mrs. Walker G. Hamner has returned to her home here from a visit with relatives in Petersburg.

Mrs. S. B. Davis, of Burkeville. and Mrs. J. A. Jones, of Farmville, are visiting Mrs. W. O. Smith in Rivermont.

Frank A. Lee, Jr., has returned to Randolph-Macon College, at Ashland, after a visit at his home here.

Mrs. John Witt is visiting in Charleston, W. Va.

Nive Here a visit at his home here.

Mrs. John Witt is visiting in Charleston, W. Va.

Nive Here a visit at his home here.

Mrs. John Witt is visiting in Charleston, W. Va.

Nive Here a visit at his home here.

Mrs. John Witt is visiting in Charleston, W. Va.

Nive Here a visit at his home here.

Mrs. John Witt is visiting in Charleston, W. Va.

Nive Here a visit at his home here.

Mrs. John Witt is visiting in Charleston, W. Va.

for several weeks, is greatly improved.

The young people of the town expect to give an Easter German in the town

WILMINGTON

WILMINGTON, N. C., March 37 .- An especially interesting feature of the week was the annual banquet of the United Society of St. George and St. Andrew, and following the banquet officers were installed for the ensuing year as follows: Bertram Quelch, president; Robert Scott, vice-president; D. dent; Robert Scott, vice-president; D. H. Scott, secretary; W. O. S. Southerland, treasurer; Rev. W. E. Cox, chaplain. At the banquet R. E. Tapp acted as toastmaster and there were many brilliant toast responses, including remarks by L. Riordan, J. P. Quelch, J. F. Sears, Robert Scott, J. Sharrock and Captain Donald MacRae. Mr. Sharrock responded to the toast, "The King," and was greeted with thundrous applause. The toast, "America, Our Adopted Country" was cheered, as were the different American airs.

Miss Frances Bachus, of Caldwell, N.

Miss Frances Bachus, of Caldwell, N. J., arrived on Monday, and Miss Laura Hanna, of Baltimore, reached the city on Wednesday, to be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Post and at-tend the Snead-Post wedding next Wilmington friends parted with re gret this week with Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Knouse, who left for Galveston, Tex., where Dr. Knouse, who is connected with the United States Health Service, has been transferred. He was stationed here for some time.

Invitations were issued this week to the marriage of Miss Katle Reston Grainger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Grainger, and Adair Morey McKoy, to be celebrated on Monday evening. April 5, at St. James's Episcopal Church.
Invitations were also sont out to the wedding of Miss Lydia Benita Post. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Post, to Herbert Scott Snead, the event to be solemnized Wednesday evening, April 7, at Grace Methodist Church this city.

after a visit at his home here.

Mrs. John Witt is visiting in Charleston. W. Va.

Miss Lizzie Adams and Mrs. D. A.

Langhorne have gone to Baltimore for a visit.

Mrs. Leola Miller has returned to her home in Staunton after a visit with her freind, Miss Elizabeth Crist, here.

Mrs. L. H. Tankersley has returned from a visit with relatives in Petersburg.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank T. McFaden, of Richmond, who were here to attend the Mary Louise, of Lawrenceville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Irby Turnbull.
M. A. Waller has been quite sick for several days.

Gordon Goode, of Greensboro, N. C., has returned after a visit of several days to his father, E. C. Goode.
George L. Elmore, of Petersburg, was here on business on Monday.

Charles T. Reekes, who has been ill

Wrs. Louise Einstein, on South Pifth Street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. Mendelsohn, rabbi of the Temple of Israel. Following the wedding there was a delightful reception, after which the happy couple left on a bridal tour. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Einstein, as maid of honor, and the groom by his best man, Edgar Fromberger, of New York. Among those from out of town

Charles T. Reekes, who has been ill York. Among those from out of town or several weeks, is greatly improved. The young people of the town expect to give an Easter German in the town Mrs. Bessie W. Madden, of Richmond

Tailleur Suits for Spring

Broad at Second

One need pay no more to have their Spring Suit early--for ready to-morrow is a wonderfully fashionable and diversified collection at

$25.00, $29.50, $35.00 to $65.00

SUITS Tailleur that proceed from military ideas as the "Zouave," "Hussard"—and similar types—others that show their militarism by buttons, pockets, straps, belts and braided designs. The Norfolk, Eton and Short Jacquette Suits, possess many unusual details as sleeves that widen at the end, somewhat like the trousers of Mexican soldiers-Over-collars of silk-Skirts that flare in gores or plaits to conform with the new silhouettes. Indeed, a collection of models from which any wo-

$25, $29.50, $35.00 to $65.00

-Featuring Monday-

A specially designed Suit with military effect, obtained by a judicious use of braid trimmings,

$35.00

New Modish Gowns

For Afternoon

A new type of gown is achieved. A semi-fancy gown, dressy enough for evening affairs, yet not too dressy for afternoon. A gown equally smart for theatre, the club, restaurant, bridge-dansant, church or calling-yet correct and fashionable for afternoon town wear.

at $25.00 and $29.50

Awaiting you in this group is a fascinating array of Spring's newest colors in her daintiest styles. The materials from which you may choose are crepe meteors, crepe de chines and crispy taffetas.

at $35.00 and $39.50

Here are presented styles that are novel, different and exclusive, new, bewitching originations. They are developed in Striped Pussy Willow, Faille, Novelty Crepe, Crepe de Chine, Supple Taffeta and Meteor.

Spring Blouse Modes

An enchanting array of exquisite fancies that reveal an intricacy of design, a happy combination of colors --- so deftly wrought as to be quite indescribable

Foremost in the display Thursday

Country Club Blouse. The Empire Blouse.

$5.95.

$3.95.

The Elsie Ferguson Blouse. $8.50

Quaint Peasant Blouses.

The Candy Stick Blouse.

$10.00